

Recruitment Options in Greenland

Jobcentre Majoriaq:

The local municipalities have jobcentres called Majoriaq in every town. They provide one-door access for citizens who seek employment, coaching or other career advice. Majoriaq is the go-to institution when seeking advice on the availability of local workers, trainees or information on educational possibilities. They can also help with contacts to local companies for service deliveries etc. You can find contact information at www.majoriaq.gl or at the local municipality.

Online Job Portal Suli:

The public job portal www.suli.gl is available for all citizens and companies free of charge. It gives easy access to all available jobs, their location and their requirements. The job portal also offers employers a good overview of what skills the countries jobseekers have. It is possible for companies to seek profiles with specific skills and contact the jobseeker directly through email or private message via www.suli.gl.

The Greenland School of Minerals and Petroleum:

The Greenland School of Minerals and Petroleum is located in Sisimiut offers two secondary educations aimed at the mineral resources sector: 1) Machine construction worker (maskinentreprenør) and 2) Mine worker education (minesvend).

Furthermore, the school offers training courses in the following subjects: Diamond core drilling, drilling carriage, machine operator with M1 to M6 certificate, machine operator for surface mining, blasting courses, etc. The school is cooperating with various external partners such as Colorado School of Mines, College of North Atlantic, Canadian Diamond Drilling Association, etc.

Companies can enquire for specific courses and the school can provide contact information to graduates if consent has been given. You can contact the school on website www.kti.gl, e-mail si@sanilin.gl or call + 299 867600.
